DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-16, drawn to a polarizing member, classified in class 349, subclass 96+.
- II. Claim 17, drawn to a polymer material layer, classified in class 520, subclass 1+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require that the polymer has been purified by filtration. The subcombination has separate utility such as in use for contact lenses.

The examiner notes that the method language of claim 9 is not given patentable weight because it is considered a "product-by-process" claim. A "product-by-process" claim is one in which the product is defined at least in part in terms of the method or process by which it is made. Atlantic Thermoplastics Co. Inc. v. Faytex Corp., 23 USPQ2d 1481, 1488 (Fed. Cir 1992). Although it is noted that claim(s) 12-22 is/are product-by-process claims, product-by-process claims are directed to the product no matter how actually made. In re Taylor, 149 USPQ 615, 617 (CCPA 1966).

Consequently, it is the patentability of the final product, and not the patentability of the process, that must be determined in a product-by-process claim. In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (CAFC 1985), Ex parte Edwards 231 USPQ 981, 983 (BdPatApp&Int 1986). Thus, in the instant case, the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as utilizing a centrifuge. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: A first embodiment in which the polymer material is purified (which claim 9 appears to read on), a second embodiment in which a migration layer is disposed (which claims 10-14 appear to read on), and third embodiment in which the extraordinary refractive index area has a length not smaller than 20 microns (which claim 1-8 and 15-16 appear to read on).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
